Where We Are

About Us

Future Manager World (FMW) is a global HR & corporate advisor with over 10 years of experience providing innovative human resources solutions to organizations worldwide.

Our primary mission is to support clients in addressing their HR and talent needs across international markets, enabling them to operate seamlessly and successfully in the global arena.

With a presence spanning 5 continents, 62 cities, and 40 countries, FMW delivers a unique combination of global expertise and local insight. We have partnered with more than 7,000 clients, assisting them in talent acquisition, workforce development, and corporate training to meet their strategic goals abroad.

Our Vision

We work to be the first global choice for all companies that need HR locally abroad. We strive to be recognized as the premier partner for businesses of all sizes, delivering exceptional HR support locally across borders. By fostering innovation, efficiency, and cultural understanding, we aim to bridge the gap between global strategies and local execution.

Through our unwavering commitment to quality and expertise, we aspire to empower companies to expand seamlessly, navigate the complexities of global talent management, and thrive in any market they choose to enter.

As a born-global company, our mission is clear: to support our customers with their HR needs abroad. Founded 10 years ago, we have successfully pursued this goal, assisting companies across 40 countries in all major economic sectors worldwide. We achieve this through an organizational structure designed for agility and efficiency on a global scale. At the heart of our mission lies the concept of AGA: Avant-Garde, Globality, Authoritateness.

We embrace simplicity as a gateway to understanding complexity, progressing communication to effectively manage the projects our clients entrust to us.

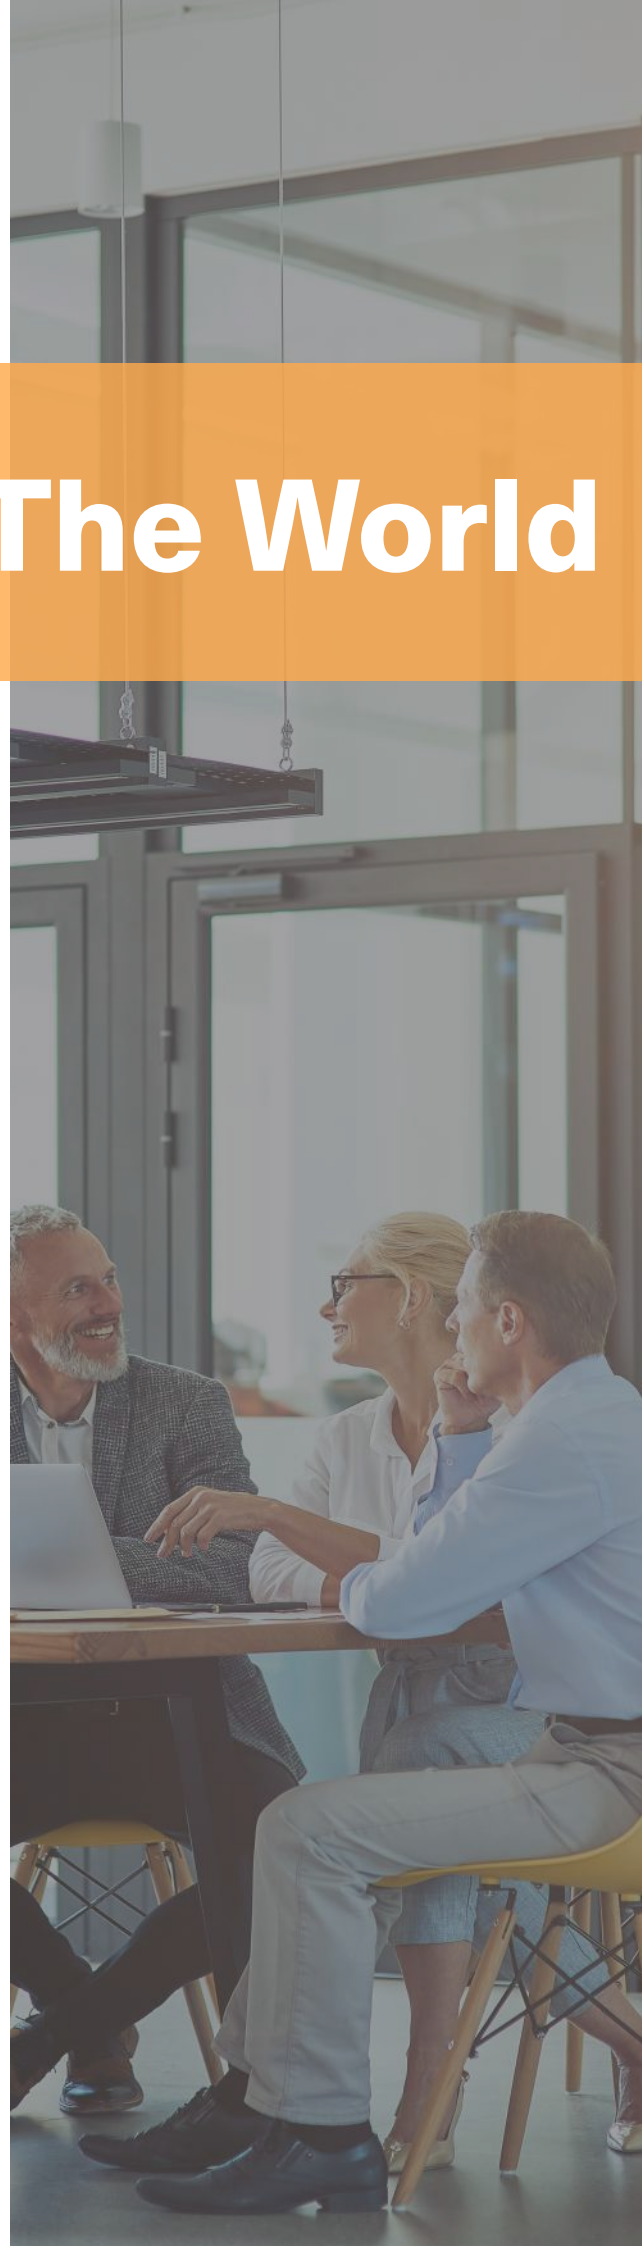

Our Mission

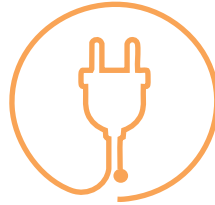

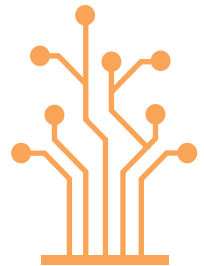

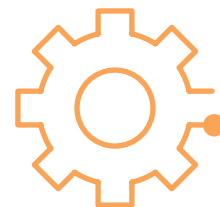

How We See The World

At Future Manager World (FMW), as a Global HR Advisor company, understanding the evolving needs of the economy is at the core of who we are. From our perspective, the economy of the coming years will depend on addressing seven key pillars, each vital for sustainable growth. These pillars are:

- Energy
- Finance
- Manufacturing
- New Skills
- Technology
- Corporate Rules
- Health

To align with these priorities, we have developed what we call “Solution Spaces” dedicated divisions through which we offer tailored services for each pillar. These spaces allow us to provide highly specialized solutions that reflect the unique needs of each sector.
